Dear Judge McMahon:

As Your Honor is aware, we represent Plaintiff in the above-referenced matter.

Given the jury verdict establishing Defendant's liability for engaging in unlawful retaliation against Plaintiff, we respectfully request that the Court's entry of judgment include the injunction and permanent restraining order requested in the Final Pretrial Order (see § XI(ii), at p. 52), and the Complaint (see Prayer for Relief ¶ (B), at p. 26). An order enjoining and permanently restraining Defendant from engaging in unlawful retaliation against Mr. Mendez is critically important to his ability to return to work free from the specter of additional acts of retaliation by Defendant. The Court has authority to award this equitable relief, which was requested in the Complaint and Final Pretrial Order, based upon the finding of the jury at trial of this case.

Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Court enter judgment on the verdict that includes the following injunctive relief:

Defendant Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc. is hereby enjoined and permanently restrained from engaging in acts of retaliation against Plaintiff Moises Mendez.
